But Irish Lad, English Lad, Adbell, Proper and Other Good Horses Will Be in the Big Race at the Bay-The Pharsalla

Plate at Brighton-To-day's Entries. What will prove to be the racing event of the year, the $20,000 Suburban Handicap, one mile and a quarter, will be run at Sheepshead Bay next Thursday afternoon. While the Metropolitan and Brooklyn Handicaps were both interesting affairs, they did not draw anywhere near such a high class field as will go to the post for this great classic of the turf. Many owners and trainers do not attempt to get their horses ready for a big race before the Suburban to win which is the height of every turfman's ambition, so that usually the Coney Island Jockey Club's star event in the spring produces a contest in which nearly all of the great thoroughbreds measure strides.

Indications point to a big field in Thursday's race—possibly as many as eighteen starters. H. B. Duryea's Irish Lad will probably go and will carry top weight, 127 pounds. The famous Candlemas horse has recovered entirely from the lameness which threw him suddenly out of training after the Brighton Handicap last year and has already indulged in one race—a sprint over a muddy track, in which he could not do himself justice. That race was simply a test of Irish Lad's soundness, and as he came out of it in fine shape Trainer John W. Rogers believes that he will be able to give a good account of himself in the Suburban. Irish Lad will get his final "prep" in a handicap this afternoon at a mile and a sixteenth. He is at his best on a fast track, so that if the going on Thurs day should be heavy he will not start.

James R. Keene's Delhi, the winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, for which he must take up a penalty of three pounds, will pack 126 in the big race. He won the Brooklyn in the most impressive style, though it is true that he beat a very ordinary field as to class, being followed home closely by the selling platers Ostrich and Graziallo, with Sir Brilla a cheap three-year-old-colt not far away Delhi since then has done nothing but in-dulge in his usual daily workouts, but he will probably be in much better trim this tim than when he last faced the barrier. It i question, however, whether Delhi will rul the favorite, as just now there is much confidence in August Belmont's Beldame to do the trick. Beldame has gradually come into her own, her victorious race on Thursday last in the Standard Stakes, when she bear the three-year-old Cairngorm, carrying weight for age, in the fast time of 2:07 3-5 over a slow sticky track, being of sufficient merit to send her to the post the first choice. In the Standard, Beldame did not make the running as usual, but came from behind and showed much of her old time gameness when the pressure was put on. This race did her world of good, no doubt, and with 122 pounds to carry in the Suburban she ought to prove a dangerous factor, either in dry or heavy going, as she is at home on any kind of a

The Picket is a puzzle. Up to the running of an overnight handicap, at a mile and a quarter, on Friday, in which Red Knight hung up a new track record for Gravesend, The Picket was considered one of the Suburban's dark horses. He did a phenomenal trial several days before his ignominious defeat in this particular event, when, with 128 pounds, he finished absolutely last, so few can account for his queer performance. He has 123 pounds in the Suburban and will surely go to the post, but on form he cannot receive much support. Broomstick and Africander, possible starters, have done nothing as yet to warrant the belief that they will accomplish much in the big race, but Fred Cook's English Lad, a Western champion, who is now coming to hand rapidly, may be a factor in the result. In the race won by Red Knight on Friday English Lad showed wonderful stamina and speed. He covered more ground than any other horse in the race and finished third, while steadily gaining on the leaders. The railroad trip East somewhat upset English Lad, so that Trainer Bill Phillips has been forced to take his time with him. If he shows as much improvement in the Suburban it would be well not to overlook him in the general summing up.

W. B. Jennings will probably start Proper The Picket is a puzzle. Up to the running well not to overlook him in the general summing up.

W. B. Jennings will probably start Proper and Dainty, both of whom were left at the post in the Brooklyn. Dainty has not raced since, but Proper has come to hand in such a manner that he must be taken well into consideration. Proper's race on Wednesday, when he won handsomely at a mile and seventy yards in 1:46 2-5 over a sloppy track, was a boom for his Suburban chances. Major Daingerfield will start if the track is muddy, as he revels in such going and has recently displayed some good qualities. Tom McDowell's Alan-a-Dale so far has been a disappointment in his races and will doubtless be passed up by the figurers. Graziallo, always consistent, may have a chance to cut into the money.

John E. Madden thinks that Adbell will be passed up by the figurers. Graziano, always consistent, may have a chance to cut into the money.

John E. Madden thinks that Adbell will be the winner. The Plaudit, four year olds has 109 pounds. With 118 he won a handicap at Gravesend on June 2 from Kehailan, Red Knight and others in 2:06 1-5, a performance that placed his chances high ur in the calculations. He was sold to S. C. Hildreth right after that race, but the deal was later modified so that Madden and Hildreth each own a half interest in him. Nobody knows yet whether Diamond Jim Brady's Oiseau, the crack three-year-old, will start. He has done some smashing good work at the handicap distance and is in with 106 pounds. But it is just possible that the Ornus colt will be reserved for future events. W. W. Darden's Miss Crawford, with 100 pounds, looks formidable, as she is a high class mare who has been rather late in showing her best form. Ottcome beat her in a handicap on Friday, when she was heavily backed. Ostrich has 92 pounds, and, taking his Brooklyn Handicap race into consideration, he may loom up again as a possibility, but he will run up again as a possibility, but he will run up agains a much better class of horses than in the Gravesend Special. The probable starters, with the weignts and the names of their owners, are as follows:

Hetsy Coody, by Leviathan, out of Charlotte Hamilton, by Sir Charles.

There is scarcely one of the seventy-eight nominators for the Triumph Stakes who does not believe and certainly hopes that he will have the pleasure of winning this beautiful old prize. John Boden, Jr., has so nicely framed the conditions of the Triumph Stakes that no excessive penalty is incurred for winning any of the big stakes between now and September, while on the other hand the allowances are so slight that a possible sleeper is taken care of. As it is the only mile stake for two-year-olds in the country, everybody will await the outcome of the contest with the greatest interest. It should be worth between $12,000 and $15,000, exclusive of the Pharsalia, which is valued at $2,500.

The plate will be highly prized for its his-stated at $2,500.

The plate will be highly prized for its historic association. It was secured from a member of an old Louisiana family, in whose possession it had been since 1850, and during the war it was buried for safekeeping on a sugar plantation near New Orleans.

The wind up of the Gravesend meeting on Wednesday will mark the first real test of the present high tariff of admission. The attendance on the whole has been remarkably good and, without a penny's worth of tribute from the bookmakers, it may be said that the Brooklyn Jockey Club will clear a good sized dividend. The same conditions will prevail at Sheepshead Bay and Brighton Beach. The fact that the books at Buffalo are operating under the same plan shows that the Jockey Club's policy will be adhered to. It is said that August Belmont has placed himself on record to the effect that so long as he is in any way connected with the government of the turf he will never give his consent to a plan by which the bookmakers, individually or collectively, will be geognized again in any way.

Some of these days the Jockey Club will pass a rule prohibiting bookmakers from owning and racing horses while they are actively engaged in the betting ring. Such a rule might be well amended so that bootmakers cannot control the services of jockeys, or in fact have anything to do with the racing end of the game except the laying of prices. It does not look well to see a bookmaker lay against his own horse; neither is it exactly the thing to see a layer bet on a good thing while his jockey is hauled before the stewards for a "grossly incompetent" ride on a horse that could have won with clean handling.

The feature of the racing at Gravesend to-stewards for a "grossly incompetent" ride on a horse that could have won with clean handling.

The feature of the racing at Gravesend today is the running of the Astoria Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs. This is a private subscription affair, the winner being called upon to give a banquet to the other subscribers this evening. The Oneck Stable, owned by H. K. Knapp, has named Incorrigible and Flaming Star. S. S. Brown's Sue Smith, the Goughacres Stable's India and William Astor Chanler's Hekate are the others carded. In the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth Irish Lad will take up top weight, meeting such horses as Bad News. Axile, Witful, Ormonde's Right, Canteen and others. Shot Gun has top weight in the opening event, a handicap at about six furlongs, with Lady Amelia, Broomstick, Big Ben, Jake Sanders and others to beat. The second race is for platers, at a mile and a furlong. Major Daingerfield, De Reszke, Heno and Dekaber having chances. Platers will run in the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Buttons, Champlain, Orly II. and Palette being the best. Maiden two-year-olds will run in the last race, at five and a half furlongs. Cary, Quorum, Caplas and Sandy D. being prominent. The entries are as follows:

JOYCE DEFEATS HYNES. American Five Mile Champion Wins by

Half a Yard From "Galway Blazer." Thomas Hynes, a genuine "Galway Blazer" fresh from his verdant cradle, was the star attraction at the annual picnic and games of the Galway Men's Association at Celtic Park yesterday. Eight thousand natives of the "ould sod" gathered to see the Galway boy show his prowess, for his record as a runner was a great one at home. He is the Irish cross country champion, and for a year or two has had no equal in the green isle from a mile to ten.

Hynes was down on the card for a special match of five miles with John Joyce, a neigh-bor of his from home, but Hynes said he had bor of his from home, but Hynes said he had not quite gathered his land legs as yet, so the distance was shortened a mile to suit him. At the start Hynes had the pole and jumped away at the flash of the gun. After about twenty yards or so Joyce shot past him and led to the first mile, the time being 5 minutes 7:1-5 seconds. Then Hynes took a turn at pacing and he showed the way to the two mile post, which was reached in 10 minutes 29:2-5 seconds. All the time the men were striding along a few feet apart, and for the next half mile Joyce led, but Hynes took the lead at the three miles, which was reeled off in 15 minutes 54 seconds. Hynes kept in front until about 100 yards from the finish, when Joyce spurted and drew level and amidst a scene of the greatest excitement the pair raced to the worsted. Joyce winning by eighteen inches. The time was 21 minutes 5 seconds, a long ways short of the American record, 20 minutes 15:4-5 seconds, made by the lets Willie Day in 1890. record, 20 minutes 15 4-5 seconds, made by the late Willie Day in 1890. record, 20 minutes 15 4-5 seconds, made by the late Willie Day in 1890.

GERMAN GYMNASTS HERE. Will Compete in National Festival at Indianapolis. The steamship Moltke of the Hamburg-American Line, which arrived yesterday from Hamburg. Dover and Boulogne, brought over a team of German gymnasts which will compete in the national festival of the North American Gymnastic Union at Indianapolis from June 16 to 21. They were in charge of Herr Prof. F. Kessler, director of the Royal Association of the Teachers of Physical Association of the reaction of the reaction of the Culture of Stuttgart. Their names are H. Brandenburgher, H. Berger, G. Bade, K. Gutsch, E. Kuhr, G. Kossag, A. Meyer, A. Schirner and F. Wolf. These men represent an association which has a membership of 700,000 men of muscle, and they are here to an associated and they are here to show the German-Americans the prowess of the real native of the Vaderland. While here they will be guests of the New York Turn Verein, and if Coney Island and the other sights are not too magnetic the turners will leave here on Thursday for Washington to be presented to President Roosevelt.

Coroner Gustav Scholer, president of the New York Turn Verein, is chairman of the reception committee to look after the gymnasts, and Mr. Scholer, with a big party of Germans, went down the bay to meet the Moltke yesterday. After the customs officials were through with the baggage of the strong men the visitors were taken to the Turn Verein at Eighty-fifth street and Lexington avenue, where a reception was tendered to them last night. To-day the invaders will be piloted to Coney Island and the Boer War and to-morrow they will take a trip up the Hudson.

CHAMPIONS BLANKED BY CUBS

REULBACH'S SPEED CUTS DOWN NEW YORK BATTERS.

Double Plays Also Conspire to the Undoing of McGraw's Men in Chicago-Brook lyns Lose a Game in St. Louis, Quaker Players Bump the Cincinnati Reds.

CHICAGO, June 11 .- Reulbach shut out the New York Nationals to-day before a big and delighted crowd. The giant col-legian had great speed and received beautiful support, three fast double plays killing off the New Yorks when they seemed to have a chance of scoring. The locals opened on McGinnity in the first round, when, with two out, Maloney singled and stole second. Chance hit through the infield and Maloney acored. After this peace prevailed until the fourth, when Chance pushed a double to left, and scored on Evers's drive to right.

The game was clinched in the next inning. After two were out Schulte singled and Maloney beat out a bunt. Chance looked formidable, and McGinnity passed him, preferring to take risks on Tinker. It proved to be poor judgment, for Tinker sent out a savage whack and two men scored.

New York was helpless against the fast field work until the eighth, when Devlin was hit on the arm, and McGraw sent Strang up for McGinnity. He singled and prospects seemed to look up. Donlin hit down to Evers and a rapid double play resulted. Wiltee pitched the eighth for New York, and made two of the three Chicago batsmen fan the breeze.

After the game the public mobbed Chance and Reulbach, pounding them with friendly whacks until both ran for their lives to escape.

Police Escort Umpire to Railroad Station to Escape Newark Rooters. NEWARK, N. J., June 11.-Umpire Conway, who officiated at the game between the Newrailroad station by the police after the game and hurried out of town to escape the angry crowd that had witnessed his work at the game. When he was put on the train he was warned by the police that he would not be permitted on the Newark grounds again. The Newarks lost the game, and the crowd thought the umpire's decisions were very much against the home team. The score: railroad station by the police after the game

BATTING AND FIELDING. Work of the New York Americans and Nationals and Brooklyn Team.

The New York Americans having fallen into paths other than those of pleasant dalliance, their batting shows the effects. Keeler, with a credit of .317, is still the best stick worker on the squad, and he also is the only one on the team who has a record better than the 300 per cent. He made his fiftieth hit last week. Chase has lapsed a bit from his former good hitting, but it is only a finy slump. He is in third place now, behind Conroy, who moved up well last week. Fultz was unfortunate last week and made the first error of his season's play. His hitting, although he is now batting at the top of the Americans' list, is not as good as it was, but is a good all season c lip at that.

Mathewson and McGinnity still are battling for the lead on the National League team.

Strang has passed a few others, while Bresna-han shows a slight falling off. Browne is going along well. Devlin's base stealing has been remarkable, and he has a big margin in the lead in this division.

The number of double plays that the Brooklyn team has made continues to be a feature of its work. The hitting has been poor, and now there is not one man who is in the .300 class. The figures, including the games

ATLANTIC CITY, June 11.—As a preliminary to the national convention of the Master Steam and Hot Water Fitters' Association, to be held here during the week, a golf tournament has been arranged for to-morrow on the course of the Atlantic City Country Club. The arrangements are in charge of Frank B. Barrett, captain of the Eastern Trades Golf Association of New York, and one competition will be exclusively for members of the Western Trades Golf Association of Chicago. There will be a team prize, open to representatives of the Eastern and Western Trades Association, and the New York Master Steam and Hot Water Fitters' Golf Club, besides a needal play contest under conditions that will offer opportunities to gain a trophy to players of all degrees of skill. skill.

The delegates, who are arriving from every large city in the country, express more concern over the outcome of the golf tournament than over the topics to be discussed at the national convention.

Walter E. Egan, who has been a member Walter E. Egan, who has been a member of the Oakley Country Club during his course at Harvard, wound up his career in Massachusetts golf on Saturday in the onen handicap at the Myopia Hunt Club. He won the gross score medal with the card of it, 41–982. This included an eight on the second hole. The course was at its full length, exceeding 6 300 yards.

Close Race in Metropolitan League and New York Association Series.

AUTOS TRIUMPHANT.

Carry Passengers Cheaper Than Long Island Railroad.

A pronounced triumph had been scored by the automobile, running in competition with the railroad, when the economy test of the Long Island Automobile Club terminated last evening. It was the first affair of the sort ever held by any organization.

Sixteen cars started in the contest at t o'clock on Saturday morning. The run was to Southampton, L. I., with a stop there overnight and the return run yesterday. All of those who started completed the journey and thirteen of the sixteen finished early last evening and had carried their passengers out and back for much less than the railroad fare, counting only the running expenses of the vehicles and not the hotel expenses, as the rules required. The other three were delayed by mishaps, mostly tire troubles, and finished after dark.

The scheme was for each car to have its store of gasoline and lubricating oil measured at the start and a record kept of all extra supplies of this sort taken aboard. Besdes this each car had charged against it the full cost of all repairs made on the road. The railroad price for a single excursion ticket between Brooklyn and Southampton is $4.33. Each car was required to carry the full quota of passengers for which it was built, so that a runabout, with two passengers, had an allowance of $9.06 for its ROWING. What the Vespers Will Have to Tackle at Henley-News on the Harlem.

The English sporting papers to hand yesterday contained a lot of news interesting to oarsmen, especially as the Vespers are on their way to Henley. Besides the Veson their way to Heney. Desides the tes-pers the other foreign entries for the Grand Challenge Cup are the Nautique du Gand, Belgium, and the Berliner Ruder Club of Ger-many. Three entries are assured from the many. Indee entries are assured from the Thames in Leander R. C., London R. C. and the Thames R. C. Since the presence of the Vespers was a certainty, Leander has not been idle, and the result is that eight tiptop varsity men, four from Oxford and four from Cambridge, will sit in the boat. Both London and Thames have been practising London and Thames have been practising with marked success, and these crews are confident of taking the measure of Leander. With three English crews in first class trim the task that awaits the Vespers can be imagined. Another feature of the contest for the Grand this year is that if the Vespers are successful they may have to row three slashing races before reaching the final-With the six crews mentioned there is a possibility of two or three college crews, and this batch of entries means that the contest will extend over the three days, and perhaps an care day, like last year.

Capt John Canavan of the Nonpareil R. C. will be buried to-day from his residence, 1351 Lexington avenue. He died on Friday of heart trouble, and doubtless his end was caused by his effort in the veterans sculling race on Memorial Day. Canavan was over 60 years of age and for a quarter of a mile he rowed fairly enough, but tell behind soon afterward, and gave up when he reached his own boathouse, which was about a quarter of a mile from the finish. He felt no bad effects immediately after the concest, but gradually weakened last week and passed away without the least pain. Oarsmen along the river had nothing but kind words for Capt. John, who was well liked by everybod?.

The usual crowd of oarsmen were out yesterday. The Nassaus, Mets and Nonpareils were represented by eights, while two barges went to College Point from the Nassaus. The Hamburg double, Valrey and Mulcaby, rowed half a dozen miles. They will leave for Germany on the steamer Phænicia on June 24.

Vesely of the Bohemians came in for congratulations yesterday over his defeat of Titus in the quarter mile on Saturday. The Boho is a modest fellow and takes victory and defeat in a sportsmanlike way, so his win pleased everybody.

Fuessel of the Harlems was out with Jack Nagle for a long spin. Fuessel will row in the senior singles at Philadelphia on July 4, and Ryan and O'Brien will have another try at the junior double on the same date. slashing races before reaching the final-With the six crews mentioned there is a possi-
